TRAIN DEMOLISHES TRUCK AS DRIVER IN NARROW ESCAPE

Pacific Electric Car and Bread Truck Meet at Tenth Avenue Today

POMONAN LEAPS SAFELY

R. M. Fischer Sees Coming Car, But Misjudges Distance, He Reports

His truck demolished by a west bound Pacific Electric passenger train at 7:06 a. m. today, R. M. Fisher leaped from the driver's cab to save his life, just prior to the impact. The train struck the truck on the right front side, sending it 45 feet.

Mr. Fisher, who resides in Pomona, told officers he saw the train approaching and that he thought he had sufficient time to make the crossing. Realizing that he had misjudged the distance, he leaped from the truck just as the impact occurred. He arose limply from the pavement to see his machine many feet from him.

Traffic Officer C. S. Lehman said that had the driver not jumped, he undoubtedly would have met death.

No wig-wag signal is at the intersection. A clear view is possible of trains coming from either direction.

Mr. Fisher is employed by the makers of the Sally Ann bread and his truck was loaded with fresh loaves of bread at the time of the crash. These were scattered far and wide.

The train came to a stop 50 feet west of Ninth avenue, according to Officer Lehman's report. W. E. Coleman, Los Angeles, was the motorman and L. A. Polk, Los Angeles, the conductor.

Legion, Auxiliary Tell Arrangements For Picnic Dinner

In announcing the final arrangements being made by the American Legion post and Legion Auxiliary unit for the family picnic to be held Sunday in San Dimas canyon park, Mrs. W. J. Larkin, retiring president of the Auxiliary, stated this morning that each family is to bring its own sandwiches and a covered dish. The Auxiliary will furnish the meat, sliced ham, and the Legion will supply lemonade and watermelons.

The picnic is to be a family affair with special attention being given to the children, various games being arranged for them in the afternoon.

A baseball game will be the amusement in the morning, beginning at 10 o'clock, and the picnic dinner, the big event of the day, will be served at 1 p. m.

"Be Mine Tonight" To Show Next Week

Due to the fact that so many people still want to see "Be Mine Tonight" at the Studio theatre, this famous picture will be shown here tonight and tomorrow and all next week, according to Garey Carr, theatre manager.

The response has been overwhelming and the added days run of the picture will set a new record for continuous showing of a film. Mr. Carr said that persons are not only attending the theatre from Upland and Ontario, but also from Pomona and other nearby cities and as far away as Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Koehler are now located in their new residence just completed on Twenty-second street, having moved there from their home on Seventeenth street. Mr. and Mrs. Koehler came to Upland in recent years, purchased citrus property and later started the construction of the fine residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Roth of East Ninth street have welcomed to their family circle a new daughter, the baby having been born Thursday morning. The baby weighed almost 10 pounds. She has two sisters who are delighted over her arrival.

Bennet Westmore was fined $10 by Judge George R. Crane on a charge of smoking in the forest area. He was arrested by C. L. Wochholz, forest ranger, in San Antonio canyon.

Progress In Upland

Employe Is Added

As an indication that the NRA agreement is having an effect here announcement was made today that W. M. Cate had been added as a full-time employe of the Alan A. Couch Chevrolet agency here. He is employed in the service end of the concern. He was formerly employed here, and he was called back to work when increased business and the NRA agreement made necessary anothed worker.

Making Canvass

Every employer in the Upland district will either this week-end or early next week receive a list of questions concerning the effect of the NRA agreement. Number of employes prior to Aug. 1 and at present, former and present wage scale and other data will be obtained when the questions are answered.

With this information compiled, it will be known just what effect the new re-employment effort is having here. Making the canvass are Kenneth Heinauer, Glenn Atwood, Owen Davis and J. H. Siegrist.

NRA Sunday

Designated as "NRA Sunday," preachers in the local churches will on Aug. 27 speak of the NRA code and the local and national efforts to bring about increased employment. Speakers have also been scheduled to appear at the meetings of the various servic clubs and organizations during next week by Harold W. Cook, head of the educational division of the local NRA organization.

FINE PROGRAM FOR CHAMBER BANQUET

Short Talk on NRA by W. W. Mather—Novelty Acts Will Entertain

Arrangements for the big annual event of the Upland Chamber of Commerce and Civic Association are progressing most satisfactorily and an excellent dinner and great program will be enjoyed by a large number next Thursday evening at the Woman's club house.

Indications point to an attendance of 200 or more, the large increase in membership during the past months insuring a larger number at the banquet than usual. W. W. Mather, known as a student of affairs and an interesting speaker, will give a short talk explaining the NRA regulations, which will be most timely, as there are many inquiries and uncertainties on this important matter. The remainder of the program will consist of numbers provided by the Dorothy Williams studio and accordion novelty numbers by a brother and sister about eight years of age. A number of Uplanders have heard the latter and there have been many requests that they appear on this program.

The numbers from Miss Williams' studio will consist of a tap dance by Phyllis and Sheldon Swan, daughter and son of Mrs. Edna R. Swan of Upland; toe dance by Elizabeth Jones; song and dance act by Joy Ann Shumway. Miss Williams provides entertainment for many events in this and neighboring communities and she gives assurance that these numbers will be enthusiastically received.

Interspersed throughout the program will be reports of the chamber's activities since the first of this year. These will be "short and snappy" and of much interest in revealing the activities and accomplishments of the chamber.

The price of the banquet and program is only 65c, the lowest figure in many years. The committee of the Woman's club have arranged an excellent menu and your attendance will not only mean that you are to enjoy a pleasant evening, but at the same time help this outstanding organization which means so much to the city and community.

SCHOOLS WILL BE MECCA SOON WITH CHANGES IN ORDER

Sept. 11 Drawing Near and Final Preparations Are Being Made

ALL BUDGETS ARE CUT

Improvements Made in Local School, at Chaffey—New Courses Offered

With one local school being greatly improved as to appearance, with various interior changes in the Chaffey high school, with the budgets of all schools reduced and with several new courses planned, official announcement was made today that it won't be long until hundreds of school students will be back on the job.

The Fannie D. Noe school building will soon present a new entrance, this being the first change in the structure since it was erected many years ago. An improvement in both appearance and construction, the building will be ready for occupancy in plenty of time for school.

A few minor structural changes have been made on the Chaffey campus, these being in the hall of the main building and in the mechanical arts department.

Of much interest to taxpayers, however, is the assurance that budgets of all the schools will be less than in many years. Salaries of the teachers have been reduced at Chaffey but a reduction that will be watched with interest is the discontinuance of transportation service to the junior college students.

Several new courses will be offered Chaffey students, these being principally in the home economics department, in the English classes which calls for experience in oral English, and in the civics department.

School officials contemplate that the enrollment this fall will be about the same as a year ago, with perhaps a slight increase.

Planting of Lemons Subject of Comment by T. R. Woodbridge

Doings of the citrus growers in this district are recounted once a month by T. R. Woodbridge in a publication he prepares and sends to members of the Liberty Groves Operating Corp. and in the current issue he makes the following comment:

"It is interesting to note through this citrus belt the number of groves being rebudded to lemons, and also the new lemon plantings. It means a lot of lemons in a few years and in the face of the present necessary cullage at the packing houses of approximately 30 per cent in order to hold a decent price for the balance, it makes me wonder considerably about the industry's future. I am not now saying these buddings and plantings are wise or unwise, but am merely mentioning evident facts."

He continues by saying that "more and more we must realize that cooperation in and regulation of plantings must be added to cooperation in fruit sales."

More Names Received For NRA Honor List

An additional list of names to be displayed on the NRA honor roll was received by Postmaster L. N. Kirk yesterday. This is the second list received and the combined list contains the names of almost every concern in Upland.

The roll is displayed today in the postoffice.

Presence of the names on the list means that the various employers have signed the agreement to have their employes work not more than eight hours a day at the same wage they were getting for more hours work per day, and to increase the number of employes, if possible.

Several members of Upland chapter, O. E. S., attended the guest night meeting of the Star of the West chapter in Pomona on Monday night. Mrs. J. Lynward Grahame served as guest organist and the others attending were Mrs. Roy Creighton, Mrs. Isabelle Wisely and Mrs. Thos. H. Settle, worthy matron of the local chapter.

New Cooperative For Grape Men Proposed as Season Approaches

With work to be started within a few days in the harvesting of one of the best grape crops in the history of this district, final efforts are being made to draw up an NRA code that will be effective for the current season. At a meeting of growers and shippers yesterday, a proposal was presented.

The proposal calls for formation of a state wide coperative, licensing of all packers and processors and diversion of a percentage of the 1933 crop into a ccoperative surplus pool. The percentage would be determined on a basis of production and market demands.

The code will also recommend a minimum price for surplus raisins.

Before the code is finally approved, it is likely that a series of meetings will be held in the district to inform the growers and other persons interested of the effects of the proposal.

Due to a greatly improved price condition, the grape growers in the Cucamonga district are optimistic over the outlook for this season's returns. While the crop itself is not as large as in former years, the price situation is such that the returns are likely to be the highest in years.

NEW SCHOOL NURSE IS ADDED TO STAFF

Mrs. Francis Garner Named to Share With Mrs. Fuller in Local Work

Making possible a closer check up and inspection of health conditions among Upland school students, the Upland board of education has engaged Mrs. Francis Garner as school nurse, to work with Mrs. Lottie Fuller, present city and school nurse. The school's payroll will not be increased by this addition.

Mrs. Garner will be in charge of the health conditions at the Fannie D. Noe, Junior high and Eighteenth street and Sierra Vista schools, and Mrs. Fuller will be the attendance officer at the first three named schools. When students are absent she will determine why and if the reason concerns health of the student or family an investigation will be made.

Mrs. Garner's presence at the schools will enable a closer observation of any symptoms that might affect the students as a whole. Mrs. Garner returned to Upland this spring after completing a nurse's course. She and Mr. Garner resided in Upland at Central avenue and West Arrow highway until about two years ago, when they went east. During her absence she completed a nurse's training course started in former years.

Her experience and study fit her for the local position. She has been employed on a temporary basis.

As city nurse and school attendance officer, Mrs. Fuller will be in a position to immediately know of sickness of any student and of any possibility of contagion among other students.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Raser, whose marriage in Pennsylvania some time ago was of interest to many friends here, returned to Upland Thursday. Accompanying them were Miss Helen Gish, member of Beulah college faculty, who spent the summer at her home in Kansas; Miss Esther Buckwalter, of Third avenue, who has been in school at Nyac, N. Y.; Miss Martha Shenk of Pennsylvania, a graduate of Beulah college last spring, and her brother, Roy Shenk, who will enter Beulah college this fall.

TRAIL IS HOT IN HUNT FOR GUNMAN

"Pretty Boy" Floyd, Who Escaped From Local Officer, Moves Often

How close Cecil Myers came to death in his wild chase and gun fight on July 30 with "Pretty Boy" Floyd his intended victim will never be known, but it is known today that the desperado, wanted for the murder of police officers in Kansas City, has to keep moving fast to keep out of the law's clutches.

And it is known that he is moving fast, according to Mr. Myers, who told today of recent activities of the local, the county and southland police in seeking him. Floyd was speeding east when Myers started after him. Out near Cucamonga the speeder, thought then to be only an average citizen, started shooting at Myers as both machines vied with other cars on Foothill boulevard. Myers shot in return.

Since then Myers has aided in the identification of the criminal and in the search, which is now centered in the Los Angeles metropolitan center. At one time the search was in Fontana.

Ball Game Certain For Monday Night

Regardless of who wins the Upland night league ball game tonight, there will be a game next Monday night, it was announced this afternoon following the making of tentative arrangements with Ontario league officials.

Victory for the Lemon Growers over Etiwanda tonight would give the Growers the season title. In which case the Growers would meet the Ontario Hotpoint team, the champions there, Monday night for the first of a three-out-of-five series.

If Etiwanda wins, however, the series next week would be between the two local teams with the inter-city series to start the following week.

R. A. Franklin has just purchased a new Friend spraying outfit, used in citrus spraying. He now has two complete spray rigs, having purchased his first one last year.

Upland Ball Team of 20 Years Ago in Battle With L. A. Bears

Resuming the "Story of Baseball in Upland 20 Years Ago," by Lyman Clark, local sport followers can take up the account of the historic game between Upland and Los Angeles, where the story ended in The Upland News a week ago. At that time an exciting half inning had just ended. Now it is Upland's time at bat.

By Lyman Clark

Capt. Territer gave Jum Means a little "ragging" for his loose playing but the Upland boys went right after a score. Jess Busby opened with a sharp single to right. Craig wallopped one down to Rebele at second and in his eagerness for a double killing messed up everything. Bowden attempted to bunt twice then worked Watson for a pass, filling all corners. Another hot spot for the pitcher. It looked like the Upland boys were trying to duplicate the first half of the inning and show the visitors just how it really should be played.

The fans were in an uproar now. One score and possibly two were in sight. Everybody begged Manager Anderson, the next batter, to sock the old apple into the next county. Tom took a grip on his trusty bludgeon, knocked dirt off his shoes, pulled his cap down tight and looked daggers at Watson. The rival pitcher looked as cool as the proverbial cucumber. If Watson was nervous over the ticklish situation he didn't show it. His infielders kept up a continual chatter of encouragement and Sheets could be seen trying to tell Tom Anderson what he should do at the plate. No wonder the baseball "bugs" were going "nerts."

Watson got the sign from his catcher, looked around at his fielders and sent up the first one to Anderson. A high inshoot but Tom had looked at them all day and waited. The next pitch was not just what he wanted but was good enough to be called a strike by Wilding. The noise was deafening. The next pitch came up letter high and Tom eyed it as it came up the alley. Yes, she would split the plate and Tom put all he had into the swing. Crack. It was a wicked line drive into right field.

Bowden was wandering somewhere between first and second when Macklin made a sensational shoestring catch and it was a

CITRUS IDEAS IN DISTRICT MAY AID FLORIDA'S SYSTEM

Many Features in Handling Fruit Here Enthuse Visitors

COUNTERS BRING PRAISE

Local Equipment Said To Be 10 Years Ahead of Florida's System

As the result of the visit here of J. C. Pervett, director in the Florida Fruit Growers Exchange, and J. W. Wolfe, prominent Florida grower, several of the packing house equipment features in use here are likely to be added to the packing houses in Florida.

I. H. Weaver, local California Fruit Growers Exchange office, said today that the two visitors were greatly enthused over the local equipment. One thing that impressed the visitors, Mr. Weaver said, was the counting machines used here in counting the individual oranges and lemons as they go on the endless belt.

The men, especially Mr. Pervett, noted many features of the local fruit system, and he told Mr. Weaver that if at all possible he was going to make the improvements in the Florida Exchange houses.

"In general, from what the men said, I believe the Florida packing house equipment is 10 years behind that in use here," Mr. Weaver said today, in commenting on the visit of the two men.

The Floridans came here recently and with Mr. Weaver made a tour of several of the houses and in general studied the Exchange system of handling the fruit from the time it is picked until it is either shipped or placed in the precooling plants or stored.

"They were very pleased with the whole 'set up' of the system," Mr. Weaver added.

As the result of the approval of the California citrus marketing code this week and of the likelihood of a national selling code, California and Florida citrus growers are likely to be brought in closer cooperation. Visit of the two officials will also be a factor in getting cooperation in the marketing of fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle and Family to Leave for Chicago Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tuttle and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wickstrom of Beverly Hills, will leave tomorrow night for a glimpse of the Century of Progress exposition in Chicago. After being in Chicago for an indefinite period, they will go to their former home in Iowa and visit, with Mrs. Tuttle remaining until some time in October with a brother who is ill. Other members of the party will return next month. During their absence from Upland the Tuttle residence will be occupied by attendants.

Preceding their departure, Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle were hosts Tuesday evening at a dinner party and on Wednesday Mrs. Tuttle and Mrs. Ethel Ford visited friends and relatives in the metropolitan center. Present Tuesday night were Miss Ella Clark of Upland, Mrs. Mary Sharp and her daughter, Hygene Sharp, and Mrs. Eileen Brown of Centerville, Iowa, and Mrs. W. S. Thomas and her son, R. E. Thomas, of Los Angeles.

Going to Arcadia Wednesday, the local women visited with Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Dettweiler, and in Pasadena they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bartlett, ending their day's visiting with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas of Los Angeles.

Jail Book Likely to See New August Mark

August is likely to go down in local police records as a month with fewer arrests than any other month for many years.

Aug. 7 is the last date entered on the jail book, meaning that no persons have been confined in jail on a locad charge since then.

The police have handled about as many persons and taken care of as many details as during any other month, but it just so happens that the persons arrested have not had to be placed behind bars.

Code Signed Up, So Hair Cuts Going Up

Price of hair cuts will be advanced to 50 cents on Monday and shaves to 25 cents as the result of the adoption of an NRA code by barbers in the district from Cucamonga on the east to Baldwin Park on the west. In this entire district only four master barbers failed to sign the agreement, which has just been approved by NRA officials.

All the Upland barbers are uniting in the new move and part of the agreement is a provision specifying the hours. Barbers are to work not more than 54 hours during a week. Shops will open at 8 a. m. and close at 6 p. m. on week days.

Firms To Apply for Sales Tax Permit

Upland merchants are to file their applications for doing business in connection with the sales tax law by Aug. 31 or suffer the consequences.

Avery S. Allen, chamber of commerce secretary, who has the application forms, said today that very few firms had responded to him, and he made the suggestion that this matter be taken care of immediately.

$351.98 Given City In Caring for Needy

Men and women in the Upland district physically unable to work and in need of financial assistance will benefit by the appropriation of $351.98 given to the local relief committee for distribution.

Appropriations are made from time to time for this fund as well as for the unemployment relief fund. Persons needing employment and able to work are given employment on local projects.

Two Ontario persons underwent operations at the San Antonio Community hospital today. James W. Bond, former Chaffey student, underwent a major operation, as did also James E. Shaw.

RADIO FOR POLICE GETTING INTEREST

Officials of Citrus Belt Cities Will Discuss Proposal Tonight

With police in the various citrus belt cities virtually united in the belief that "a police radio broadcasting system is bound to come," much interest is being shown here today in the meeting of the Citrus Belt League of Municipalities at Redlands tonight.

Chief of Police J. F. Sawyer and Officer C. S. Lehman of the local department plan to attend and the city council will also be represented. It is at this meeting that the first tentative police radio broadcasting proposal will be presented for official consideration.

At an operating cost of approximately $600 a month, it is proposed to establish a system for the citrus district, with eacn of the member cities sharing in the financial burden. Plan of operation would be very similar to the plan so popular in Los Angeles, it is believed.

Mr. Sawyer expressed strong approval of the plan today.

"I don't know just how the plan would operate," he said. "The broadcasting station would probably be at some central point. It is likely that we would have a direct telephone wire to that station. For example, supposing there was a suspicious character or a prowler in your neighborhood. You would call us and we would put you on the direct line to the broadcasting station. Immediately the announcer would radio to 'Upland Patrol Car' and tell where to go."

Mr. Sawyer said that in some local cases the radio could be of no service, but he explained that many times an immediate notification of the automobile patrolman to go some place would greatly aid in apprehending criminals.

Officials from all the cities in the citrus belt will be at the Redlands meeting to discuss the possibility of establishing the station. Before any definite action can be taken, however, it is likely considerable preliminary study will be made.

Mrs. Thos. H. Settle spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Los Angeles, where she was the guest of Mrs. Bert Hickman.

UPLAND JOINS IN MOURNING AT LOSS OF CADET TAYLOR

Father of Two Local Men Summoned After Long Service to State

SERVICE IS TOMORROW

Pomonan Taken by Death Yesterday After Illness Following Accident

Senator Cadet Taylor, father of Wallace C. and H. B. Taylor of Upland, died Thursday morning at his home, 198 Jefferson street, Pomona, following a long illness due to injuries received in the spring of 1927 when he was struck by an automobile while in Sacramento serving as state senator.

Senator Taylor's death has attracted state wide attention because of his many years of active participation in Republican political affairs and especially in Pomona is his passing generally mourned for he was a prominent leader in the civic life of that city. Although bedridden in his later years, he maintained a keen interest in city, state and national affairs.

Senator Taylor, who was 84 years old, was born in Magnolia, Putnam county, Ill., on Sept. 30, 1848. In his youth he became assistant to the chief of the government printing office in Washington, D. C., and from that time may be dated his public career.

Later he edited the Omaha Republican in Omaha, Neb., and during the administration of McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft he was collector of customs in Omaha. He later edited a paper in Wenona, Ill.

Coming to California in 1915 Senator Taylor settled in Pomona and became interested in citrus ranching with his two sons, becoming active in politics, he was made chairman of the Republican Congressional committee for the Ninth district and served as senator in the California legislature in 1926 and 1927.

At home he was no less active in civic affairs and as chairman of the postoffice committee of the Pomona chamber of commerce, he was successful in securing for his city in 1931 a fine federal building, including a number of federal departments besides the postoffice.

Senator Taylor was a member of the Pilgrim Congregational church in Pomona and was a life member of St. John's Masonic lodge, No. 25, in Omaha. He also was a member of the Knights Templar, Scottish Rite and Shrine.

He leaves two sons, Wallace C. and H. B. Taylor, both of Upland; two brothers, H. L. Taylor, Kankakee, Ill., and Cash M. lor. Kankakee, Ill., and Cash M. Taylor, Kansas City, Mo., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Pilgrim Congregational church Saturday at 3 p. m. Entombment will follow in the Pomona Mausoleum by the side of his wfe who passed away in March, 1928.

Youth In Crime

A few months ago, after reading some statistics on the astonishingly large number of criminals in the younger class, we commented in this column that the American people are "falling down" in their job of developing the youth into the right kind of grown-ups. We stated that there must undoubtedly be something radically wrong with the influence of the home, the church and the school. The blame for this large number of young criminals cannot be laid to any one of these institutions, but it must be that all of them are not exerting proper influences to safeguard the young and thus guarantee the right future for them.

We are, no doubt, one of many who are of this opinion. The San Bernardino Evening Telegram remarked as follows of this lamentable condition a few days ago:

Crime statistics for the first six months of this year have become available and they show us what we must do. The Department of Justice examined 159,493 fingerprint records of arrests for that period and found individuals 19 years of age outnumbered all others in the criminal records. Although the 19-year-olds exceeded the 18-year-olds only 10 per cent in total arrests, the offenses for which they were arrested were more grave.

The figures are staggering and are such an indictment of our methods of character-building as cannot be answered. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt believes youthful crime has increased largely because the adventures of criminal life have been idealized. Mrs. Roosevelt remarks:

"The right kind of education has to come back?

"The youthful crime trend is not new. It's been going on for years. Many things have contributed. Partly it's love of adventure not turned to useful effort. Partly it's because boys who have finished school can't get jobs. But it can't be blamed upon the depression. Good times as well as bad contributed.

"Many things in our civilization today tend to make it easier to commit crime."

Whatever the cause that leads these boys into crime, it is the business of society to organize itself to prevent the trend. The character-building organizations in every community must be better financed in order that they may extend their operations.

Youths provided with a place to which they may repair for indulgence in healthful sports do not think of crime. A different sort of psychology is created within them. Their minds are occupied with things that will make them more healthy, happier, more ambitious. The clean rivalry of good sportsmanship helps to build character and promote good citizenship.

Mrs. Roosevelt's idea that the adventures in criminal life have been idealized impresses us as accurate. The youth wants action. He wants something to do and he will find it where he ought not to do so unless it is provided for him under proper surroundings. The summer playgrounds play their part in providing the boys with action, as do the Boy Scouts, the Young Men's Christian association and other similar character-building organizations.

Unfortunately, during the lean years from which we are emerging, these organizations have not been as well supported as when times were good. It is a curious, but apparently inescapable, paradox that at a time when boys and youths cannot find employment, and have more enforced leisure than common, the benevolent enterprises engaged in the business of turning that leisure to profitable pursuits have the least funds to do so in the history of their operation. But that is the case.

The Christian churches have their part in this matter of teaching the youths that crime does not pay, that happiness lies only in obedience to law and order and in conformity to decent standards. Indeed the church does not appear to us to be occupying its proper field unless it is campaigning vigorously to interest the young people of the community. Assuredly the next generation of Americans cannot be one of righteousness and proper living through exhortations of the adults of this generation. It is the boys and girls of today, the fathers and mothers of tomorrow, whose character will determine the character of the next generation.

The San Bernardino of tomorrow will be what the young folk of today become.

There is a black spot in the industrial outlook—retail trade, which is still in an extremely depressed state. Best fact of all is that the upturn has been in progress for four months without a setback. The most stable barometers—car loadings, electric power, steel output—indicate continued improvement. During June there was an 18 per cent increase in man-hours worked in manufacturing plants, as compared with May. Wage totals showed a 10 per cent jump, while cost of living went up less than one per cent. So far, purchasing power is advancing much more rapidly than prices. Welfare agencies in most cities report that requests for relief are well below former levels. A remarkable feature of recovery is that improvement has been largely apparent in heavy industries. According to the Federal Reserve Board, this is the first time that a pick-up has not been almost wholly confined to industries producing non-durable goods.

We Cannot Wait for Miracle

San Bernardino Sun: We cannot quote from "The Green Pastures" with exactitude. But there is a moment when somebody tells De Lawd that it hardly seems worth his while to fuss much more about so ornery a planet as the Earth has proved to be. De Lawd meditates a little, surveying his beautiful and peaceful heaven, and then remarks that after all He had a pretty hard time getting that place started!

There are complaints abroad that the NRA is not doing this or never will be able to do that or has no right to try to do the other thing. Well, what do the complainers expect? The NRA has no supernatural powers. It isn't trying to pass any miracles.

NRA is merely the American people trying to get going on recovery. It is subject to all the frailties of all of us, its chain no stronger than our weakest link. But our links, weak and strong, lay scattered and useless. We are forming them into a chain by which to hoist ourselves out of deep trouble.

The NRA is nothing outside ourselves. After all, even the U. S. spells US.

Another farmer: I want a ton of hay.

Feed man: Is it for your horse?

Farmer: No, it is for mp cow.

Feed man: Then you don't have to pay any sales tax.

Third farmer: I want to buy a ton of hay.

Feed man: Is it for your horse?

Farmer: No, it is for my two cows and bull.

Feed man: You don't have to pay the tax for the hay for the two cows, but for the bull you do.

The theory of it all is that the sales tax is paid in the case of the cow through the sale of the milk, while with the horse and bull they are "unproductive."

And evidently Governor Sunny Jim will have to send a man around to all the farms to report when the cows go dry and cease to be "producers" along with the horses and bulls.

On the Ground Floor

Hemet News: The big ambition of the small investor has always been to "get in on the ground floor." Too often, in recent years, the investor who tried to do that has stepped into an open elevator shaft and dropped into the basement; but the goal is reached once in a great while, and when it does happen the results are spectacular.

The late Horace H. Rackham, who died in Detroit recently at the age of 73, was one of that small, fortunate group who got in on the ground floor with Henry Ford. In 1903 he invested $5000 in the Ford Motor company; in 1919 he sold out for $12,500,000.

That is the sort of turn to fortune's wheel that the optimistic investor remembers. To be sure, it doesn't happen often. But it happens occasionally, and the memory of it will be green, probably, as long as there are investors—and stock salesmen.

Distillers Worried

Claremont Courier: There isn't going to be whiskey enough to go around. Within three months after the ban is removed, which is estimated to be about the first of next year, the whiskey will all be gone. True, distillers have been anticipating repeal, but whiskey has to be aged—and there is no time for aging. As a result liquor will be imported from abroad until such time as our own distillers can catch up with demand.

Already drug store whiskey, obtainable by the prescription route, has gone up in some places 50 cents a pint, and is selling at $3 to $4 a pint, a fairly high price to pay for a headache. Hence moonshine and bootleg will be in great demand for several years.

What distillers are looking for is a chemist wizard who can devise a scheme to age whiskey in a few months instead of three to seven years. Science may yet come to their rescue.

His Record Is Good

Reseda News: Frank F. Merriam's record on the liquor question ought to strengthen him in his candidacy for the governorship. In the years that the 18th amendment was a potent factor he gave it loyal support and it was always possible to tell where he stood. He was in favor of law enforcement and as long as prohibition was in effect he stood by it. Since the nation has reversed itself he will continue to be on the side of law and order, and no man in California would have more respect for all of the laws and their enforcement than Mr. Merriam. He would bring to the office elements of fitness that the state is in need of.

NEW ERA IN U. S. SEEN BY MATHER

Today's Developments Indicate Coming of New Ideas in Society and Industry

President Roosevelt's administration marks the beginning of a new era in American history and three words will characterize this period, "Society" and "Governmental Compulsion," according to Wiley W. Mather, political science professor, who spoke at the meeting of the Upland Lions club yesterday noon on "Mountain Peak Politics."

The nation was founded on the principles of individualism, property ownership and competition, he said, but these terms have had their era and "birth pangs" of a new period are being experienced under the leadership of President Rosevelt.

In recent weeks he was a member of a party hiking up Mt. Lassen and at various points he could look back and see the peaks of adjacent mountains, the contrasting color of the lakes and the valleys. As he hiked higher, he could get a larger vista. In political history he "looked back" and then "looked ahead" to see where we are going.

Ahead, is the new order of things in America and this is the period of change and with this change comes uncertainty, suffering and confusion, Mr. Mather said. The March 4 inauguraton not only gave a change in political parties, but a change in spirit. This change will be definitely marked as from the period of the frontier to something else, the speaker said, and he emphatically declared that it would not be a change to Russian communism or to the Italian Fascism.

Principles of the new era are likely to be founded on "society," that is, the consumer, and on "governmental compulsion," he said. Previously mass production has been the aim, but in the future the markets will be limited, the standard of living will be raised and industrial plans will be made in terms of the consumers' viewpoint and needs.

It will be up to the different groups in America to work out their problems and then the government will step in to see that justice is done, Mr. Mather said. In this connection he made no reference to the NRA agreement, but its application would come under his explanation of "governmental compulsion."

Herbert Hoover was described as an individualist and his loss of popularity was attributed to the fact that he was unable to cope with the changing conditions.

It is necessary, he said, to adjust our thinking to the new day—to work together.

Milton Huxtable was program chairman, presenting Mr. Mather, who is a former member of the club and a past president of the group.

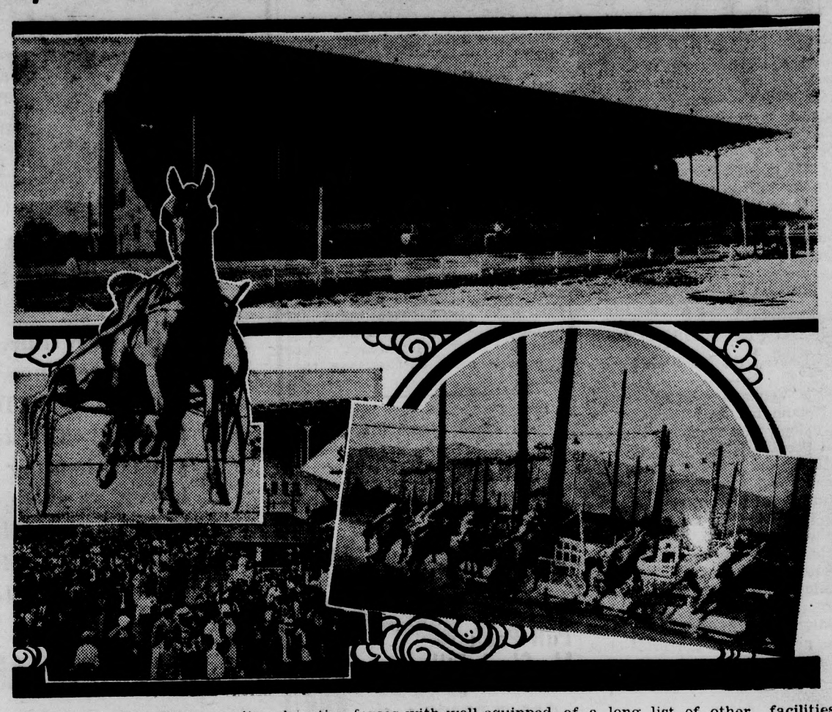

Charles Pooler, a new club member, gave a craft talk.

Uplanders Await Presentation of Southland Fair

A 125-acre city within a city, self-contained and self-sustained with practically everything that goes to make up a well regulated municipality, will form the background for the combined Los Angeles, Riverside and Orange County fair in Pomona, Sept. 15 to 24. This interesting fact is contained in a survey of the forthcoming exposition just completed by Los Angeles county officials. Incidentally it shows the magnitude to which the event has grown in a dozen years.

The fair has its own police and detective forces with well equipped headquarters; adequately manned fire department, fire alarm and fire inspection systems; daily newspaper, written, printed and distributed each afternoon; hospital and Red Cross service with staff of attending physicians; ambulance service; transportation system; complete water development and distribution system; telephone and telegraph stations; electric substation and distribution lines, wholesale meat and grocery establishments, planing mill, lumber yard, blacksmith shop and administration building, to say nothing of a long list of other facilities which might be mentioned.

How necessary these establishments are can be realized from the fact that the average fair attendance is 300,000 people. There are 3,000 permanent residents in the "city." They are the attendants, stockmen, caretakers, watchmen, grooms, cooks, and others who make their home on the grounds during the 10 days. To this can be added another 5000 employed in the various departments, concessions, about the grounds, and in the thousand-and-one tasks requiring attention.

NRA Program for Beauty Shops Told at Dinner Meeting

Operation of beauty shops under NRA provisions was discussed on Tuesday night when approximately 60 cosmetologists, members of the Orange Empire association and the Foothill association, held a dinner meeting in Hotel Ontario. Practically all valley cities from Riverside to Azusa were represented.

State officers of the California Coscetologists association were present, including the state president, Mrs. Elizabeth Strahl. Mrs. Mollie Malone of Riverside, president of the Orange Empire association, also took an active part in the meeting.

The NRA requirements were explained by the officers and round-table discussions of the provisions of the code now being formulated were held.

Every member of the Orange Empire and Foothill associations has signed the NRA agreement and the code is expected to be ready next week.

An adjustment of prices will be necessary, increases being made in some instances.

Cosmetologists in Upland and Ontario perfected an organization two weeks ago and joined the Orange Empire association.

Those from Upland attending the meeting Tuesday night were Mrs. Elizabeth Burton of the Burton Beauty shop; Miss Elna Lewis of Mac's Beauty Spot; Miss Janet Bryan, of the Janet Louise Marinello shop, and Mrs. Helen Aime, of Helen's Beauty shop.

Details of Wedding of Miss Brumbaugh and Paul E. Tate

Friends of Paul Tate, who recently went east with his relatives, Mrs. E. O. Bowden and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Westerburg, will be interested in the following account of his wedding taken from a New Castle, Pa., newspaper:

A wedding of beautiful simplicity was performed Wednesday at 6 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Tate, Fairmont avenue, when their son, Paul Edward, took as his bride Ethel Martha Brumbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brumbaugh of Mercer.

As Mrs. Lou Westerburg of Cleveland played and sang "I Love You Truly," the bride and her attendants came down the wide staircase and as she reached the bottom she was met by the groom, the two proceeding to an impromptu altar formed by an embankment of ferns and flowers in front of the fireplance in the long living room. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. J. Buckingham of Mt. Carmel, a former pastor of the Primitive Methodist church of this city.

The bride was lovely in a long white satin and lace gown, which was fashioned with long sleeves, pointed over the hands and her veil conformed to the latest mode reaching just below her waist, being held in place by a band of orange blossoms. Her bouquet, was of tea roses and valley lilies. The groom, instead of wearing the conventional black, was dressed in white also.

Stanley Price served as best man and the maid of honor, dressed in white crepe with a pale blue taffeta jacket, was Mildred Dodds, a cousin of the groom. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaids were Elwina Dodds and Bernice Holland, each dressed in blue frocks; the flower girl was little Darlene Hoyland, in pink organdy, and Bobby Hoyland was ring bearer. The bridesmaids each wore a wrist corsage. The lovely gifts were on display in an upstairs room.

Leroy Messner acted as usher.

After a short motor trip Mr. and Mrs. Tate will return to this city and in September will leave for Southern California, where Mr. Tate is employed.

A buffet lunch supplemented the ceremony, with the bridal party seated at a beautifully appointed table. All decorations were in pink and yellow and the centerpiece was a three-tiered cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Aiding in serving the guests were Mrs. E. E. Hoyland, Mrs. C. J. Dodds, Mrs. C. L. Yoho, Mrs. E. O. Bowden, an aunt of the groom from Upland, Calif., and Mrs. G. D. Tate

Out of town guests included Mrs. H. J. Buckingham of Mt. Carmel, Mrs. E. O. Bowden and Mr. and Mrs. Lous Westerburg of California. Mr. and Mrs. L. Westerburg and son Ralph of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. James Phillis of Jamestown and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Phillis and son Wesley of Sharon.

Misses Randall, Hart Enjoy Eastern Trip

After a several weeks trip through the east, made with Miss Nellie Randall of Laurel avenue, Miss Sinabel Hart returned Thursday to her home on First avenue.

Traveling on Greyhound buses, Miss Hart and Miss Randall made a leisurely trip, stopping off at nights to rest in hotels. They went first to Chicago where they greatly enjoyed the Century of Progress exposition.

From Chicago, Miss Randall went to Kansas City for a visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lutz, while Miss Hart continued on to Nashville and other places in Tennessee where she visited with her relatives.

On the return trip, also made on Greyhound buses, Miss Hart and Miss Randall traveled together as far as Reno, Nev., where Miss Randall stopped to visit with relatives for a few days. She also planned to make stops in Ventura and other coast points before returning home.

Miss Hart had the pleasure of stopping in Berkeley for two days as the guest of Mrs. W. A. Lucas, formerly of Upland, and she also spent a day in Los Angeles with friends before coming on to Upland.

Merry-Go-Round Club Members Guests of Mrs. Wm. S. Avery

Enjoying the hospitality extended by Mrs. Wm. S. Avery, members of the Merry-Go-Round club were guests at a delightfully planned luncheon and afternoon party given Wednesday at the home of the hostess in the Upland Inn.

Richly colored zinnias were used in the house decorations and attractive appointments graced the luncheon table. Misses Mary Norton and Louise Newton Return From Trip

Arriving at home at an early hour Wednesday morning, Miss Mary Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Norton, concluded an eastern motor trip that was filled with many pleasant experiences.

On the eastward trip Miss Norton accompanied Mrs. Sidney Craven, Miss Collis Nichols and Miss Louise Newton of Ontario. Going directly through to Chicago, the motorists devoted some time to seeing the Century of Progress exposition. Mrs. Craven and Miss Nichols then went on to other places to visit with relatives, while Miss Norton and Miss Newton remained in Chicago to visit with friends and to see the various places of interest in the city.

As guests of their friends they had opportunities to attend social functions and to see several shows, as well as to tour the city.

Securing an opportunity to bring back a new Ford car for delivery to a nearby agency, Miss Norton and Miss Newton decided to return home without waiting for the others of the party, who had not concluded their visits. Accordingly, the two young women set out for the return journey, coming directly through in record time. BEST IN ELECTRIC REFRIGERATORS HANDLED BY FOUR LOCAL CONCERNS

Nationally Known Lines Are Represented Among Upland Dealers

Leading manufacturers of electrical refrigerators are represented in Upland and due to the activity of these local dealers, many persons in the Upland district are learning of the joy, the convenience, and economy that is experienced in having guaranteed machines and service.

The Westinghouse, the Kelvinator, Norge and Crosley refrigerators are recognized as among the best models produced and these are represented here. In other words, if persons are interested in electrical refrigerators, they can find at the local dealers the nation's leading makes.

Roy Creighton, pioneer businessman, had the opportunity to choose among several makes, but he selected the Crosley as the one he desired to place in local homes. J. H. Siegrist chose the Kelvinator, and the Westinghouse line is ably represented by the Colborn Electric Co., with the Mehl Hardware Co. offering local people the Norge refrigerator.

Business has been good with these firms due to the fact that people are educated to the advantages of electrical refrigerator and due to the favorable reputation held by the makers of these machines.

To get some lines of merchandise, some people think they can do better in a larger community. This is not true in the electrical refrigeration line and it is not true in very many lines.

And so when people in the Upland district think of getting a refrigerator, they can make their selection from one of the local concerns, for the local concerns handle the nationally-known lines.

"Willie," said sister's suitor, "do you ever peek through the keyhole when I am here calling on your sister"

"Sometimes," admitted Willie, "but Ma is generally there."

Tested Receipes

Recipes that have been tested and are recommended by J. H. Siegrist, local Kelvinator dealer, are listed here:

Corned Beef Loaf

1 pkg. lemon gelatine
1 cup boiling water
1 cup meat stock
1 tablespoon grated onion
1 tablespoon meat sauce
¼ teaspoon paprika
3 cups corned beef
1 tablespoon pre. mustard

Dissolve gelatine. Add stock and sauce with paprika. Chill. When slightly thickened fold in beef, onion, and mustard. Freeze 1½ hours. Serve on lettuce. Serves 10.

Frozen Chicken and Rice

2 cups steamed rice
1½ cup mayonnaise
2 chopped pickles
Salt, pepper, paprika
1¼ cups chicken

Combine mayonnaise and rice. Add chicken and pickle, cut fine. Season well. Pack in freezing tray. Slice and serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.

Chicken Corn Pudding

2 cups chicken
3 cups corn
2 cups milk, scalded
Pepper, salt, cayenne
Buttered bread crumbs

Season meat and put in buttered baking dish. Combine corn, milk and eggs. Pour over meat. Top with bread crumbs, dot with butter and bake. Serves six.

Creamed Turkey With Olives

4 tablespoons butter
2 cups milk
Crackers or toast buttered.
Pepper
1 beaten egg yolk
4 tablespoons flour
¼ cup stuffed olives
Salt
2 cups cooked turkey
1 teaspoon chopped parsley

Melt butter and blend well with flour. Add milk and seasoning. Cook till thick. Add meat, parsley and olives. Add beaten yolk. Serve on crackers.

"Cooking With Cold" Demonstration To Be Held Next Wednesday

Advantages of having an electrical refrigerator and its many uses will be portrayed by Mrs. Fay Newsom in the Upland Woman's clubhouse at 2 p. m. next Wednesday, it was announced today by J. H. Siegrist, local Kelvinator dealer.

This will be the second demonstration given here by Mrs. Newsom for the Kelvinator dealer and Mr. Siegrist expects that another large group of women will attend. A refrigerator is necessary the entire year and not just during the summer months, Mr. Siegrist said. Mrs. Newsom will emphasize this and make suggestions in preparing menus.

As a part of the Kelvinator service, a series of home demonstrations will be held from time to time, and the first of this series was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Buffington, Euclid avenue, yesterday afternoon, with a number of women in attendance.

Kelvinator Owners Are Enthusiastic

Comments from Kelvinator users in The Upland News two weeks ago caused so many remarks from other Kelvinator users that J. H. Siegrist, local dealer, today issued the following statements as coming from local people.

Norman Lawson: "For years we have had satisfactory service from our Kelvinator."

T. R. Woodbridge: "We enjoyed years of good refrigeration from our Kelvinator."

E. H. Fischer, principal C. U. H. S.: "After years of service I have no hesitancy in recommending Kelvinator to anyone desiring lifetime refrigeration."

Roy Franklin: "Our Kelvinator, like hundreds of others, has made an enviable and commendable record."

Norge Service Aids In Many Local Sales

Norge refrigerators sell themselves, in the opinion of Mehl Hardware Co. officials.

Soon after the local concern added the Norge to their large line of merchandise, several machines were sold and since then the performance of those machines and of machines sold later have been big factors in the number of Norges sold to local people.

In other words, the service, performance and appearance of the Norge is such that its merits are quickly realized and the users become the best salesmen.

Will of Wheels

Freddie was giving his lady friend a long discourse on his family history.

"My grandfather," he said, "was just a poor, hard-working London clockmaker. When he died, a few years ago, he left all his estate, which consisted of 200 clocks, to my father."

The girl smiled.

"How interesting!" she said. "It must have been real fun winding up his estate."

Proud Papa: "Don't you think it's about time the baby learned to say 'Papa?'"

Wifey: "Oh, no. I hadn't intended telling him who you are until he becomes a little stronger."

Just let me back one more horse. I promise you it'll be the last.

That's the trouble, it usually is.

Westinghouse Chosen As Best by Colborn

Amos Colborn, of the Colborn Electric Co., was called upon to make a selection of electrical refrigerators. He knows refrigerators, having had much experience with various lines and various wholesalers.

After a very careful study, he chose the Westinghouse as the one that he believed would give the local people the most satisfaction, the most service and the most for the money.

That his selection has been justified is shown in the response given the Westinghouse through his company. Refrigerator sales have established new records. His many customers are satisfied with the Westinghouse and he is very enthusiastic.

ROUND TIE WILL END TONIGHT

Etiwanda, Lemon Growers in Clash to Decide Who Is Best

Going into the final game in the third-round playoff, the Upland Lemon Growers and Etiwanda will present an exhibition of the best in baseball talent on the Upland night league lot tonight.

In their last meeting, Etiwanda downed the Growers and in tonight's clash both teams have plenty of reason to fight it out for a victory. And on the result of tonight's game lies the schedule for next week.

If the Growers win, the veteran nine, managed by a fellow lemon packer, Ted MacLaren, will wear easily the local ball crown. The Growers won the first and second round titles with clean slates and they were going along smoothly for the third round and season title when Etiwanda mussed up things.

If Etiwanda continues to get the best of the Growers by winning tonight, the Al Utman horde will have the third round prize and will force a play-off with the Growers to end the dispute over the season title holder.

And so, an Etiwanda victory will result in games between the two teams on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights of next week. Next week's schedule is on a two-out-of-three basis.

After the local title holder is determined, the Upland champion and the Ontario league leader will play in an inter-city series.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him." These words from John are the golden text in the lesson-sermon on "Christ Jesus" on Sunday in all Christian Science churches, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

One of the Bible selections in the lesson-sermon includes the verses from John: "Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Another cites Paul's words, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus."

A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, says: "Wearing in part a human form (that is, as it seemed to mortal view), being conceived by a human mother, Jesus was the mediator between Spirit and the flesh, between Truth and error. . . From Him mortals may learn how to escape from evil."

Cortright Awarded Conservation Camp Shop Repair Work

As the successful bidder for the shoe repair work for the Civilian Conservation camps in San Antonio canyon and in Day canyon, north of Etiwanda, L. H. Cortright of the LeGrande shoe shop on East Ninth street, has contracted to repair 265 pairs of shoes.

Six bids were submitted from the west end for the work in those two camps, Mr. Cortright's bid being accepted by the officers in charge.

Mr. Cortright will turn out approximately 75 pairs of repaired army shoes each week and he says that, for a time at least, prosperity has finally turned the corner and advanced as far as his shop.

According to a scientific writer, our jungle ancestors sprang from lions, tigers and other ferocious beasts—well, who wouldn't.

Refund on Groceries For Needy to Bring County $1875 Total

Taxpayers of San Bernardino county will be saved several thousand dollars a year in refunds on sales and taxes and other state taxes paid, according to Assistant County Purchasing Agent W. E. Young.

The county will recover $1.875 this year on groceries purchased for indigents. The county welfare department, when buying food for needy families, must pay the sales tax, and may then submit a bill to the state for a refund. This is permitted also in cases where individual grocery orders are given indigents who themselves buy the food and charge it to the county upon presentation of the requisition order.

July Gasoline Tax In Gain Over 1932

Another unmistakable evidence of improving conditions is the fact that for the first time in more than a year the California gasoline tax last month was greater than for the same month in the preceding year. Fred E. Stewart, member of the State Board of Equalization, has announced the figures.

A total tax of $3.320,232 was assessed in July against gasoline distributors, representing a taxable gallonage of 111,792,332. In July of 1932, the tax collected was $3,093,956. The increase in July of this year over last was 7.3 per cent.

HOME RUN BLASTS MERCHANTS' HOPES

Lawrence Mueller Responds for Etiwanda in Play-Off Tuesday

By Geo. E. Smallwood

Blasting all of Manager Glenn Atwood's 1933 championship hopes sky high by placing one of Glenn Calloway's offerings far beyond Bob Smith's position in deep centerfield, Lawrence Mueller single-handedly perched Etiwanda on a par with the Lemon Growers on Tuesday night, eliminating the Upland Merchants 4 to 3, in the third round championship play-off. The season's largest and by far the most enthusiastic crowd stormed the Fifth avenue stands to witness a mighty good ball game. Incidently, the gate receipts greatly bolstered the year's financial standing into the profit column.

Mueller's blow, coming in the third, crushed a hard earned 2-0 lead which the Merchants had nobly built up through "heads-up" playing. Brownless and Wattenberger romped home ahead of Mueller amid tremendous applause by the Vineyardists' backers. Desiring to apparently put the game "in the bag," "Rusty" Brownless doubled in the fourth stanza to score John Scott from the keystone bag, placing Etiwanda in the lead 4 to 2. John Scott had reached second on a pair of errors by Zenz and W. Scott. Fighting desperately and taking advantage of any possible break, Bert Nichols earned a base on balls in the last of the fourth. He advanced on Zenz' sacrifice, stole third on John Scott's returned throw to Calloway, and scored on Mark Bailey's clean hit to left field. Thus ended the scoring in the nip and tuck battle.

Sylvanus Kemp offered his early season performance, allowing but five scattered bingles. Calloway stole the spotlight, however, when he shrugged a cold shoulder to 14 batters, while Kemp could only whiff out nine. Consistency was the motto of both twirlers as neither tossed a wild pitch.

Nine full innings were played in a record time of 1 hour and 24 minutes, establishing a new mark for the year.

Bert Nichols led all batters on Tuesday night, collecting a pair of safe swats in three appearances at the plate, while Brownless and Wattenberger took the back seat with a pair of hits in 4 times at bat. Further evidences of the evenness of both squads may be cited from the following figures: Each team made three errors, ran 28 total bases each and had seven men stranded on the bags.

If your elephant wants to ride on top
IT'S ALL RIGHT WITH A CHEVROLET

CHEVROLET

We didn't actually plan on elephants when we chose the bodies for the new Chevrolet. But we did choose bodies rigid enough, and strong enough, to support six tons of elephant, or anything else you can name. . . . Fisher bodies . . . steel bodies plus a hardwood frame . . . exactly the same type of bodies used on all 12 and 16-cylinder cars. Steel alone is not enough to make you as safe and secure as we want you to be in a Chevrolet. A steel body, welded into a solid wall of protection plus resilient hardwood reinforcing to take up stress, absorb shocks and prevent the steel from following its natural tendency to buckle under pressure makes the sturdiest body of all—the kind used on the Chevrolet, and on no other low-priced car. Remember that when you buy a car. Be sure to get all you pay for . . . the super-safety of a steel-plus-wood Fisher body.

CLUB DANCE VERY ENJOYABLE EVENT

20-30 Party Brings Together Members, Guests—Special Entertainment

One of the most enjoyable events of the Upland 20-30 club and its guests came Tuesday night when a large group met in the Sycamore Inn for a dinner and dance and special entertainment.

After the dinner, dancing was enjoyed, with several exhibition dances being presented as a variety during the evening. Miss Phillis Moeller appeared in a song and dance number and in a dance exhibiton with Jack Korn, who is president of the club. An exhibition waltz was closely watched as Miss Ida Cerrato and Francis Herring performed for the group.

During the dinner, Dorothy Kent appeared in solos, being accompanied by Miss Phyllis Moore, and students of Dorotny Williams' dance studio also entertained. Those participating from the studio were Elizabeth Jones, tap dance; Joy Ann Shumway, tap dance on toes; Jack Kirkpatrick, tap dance, and Velma Wright, eccentric dance—all being accompanied by George Duley.

Mr. Korn presided during the dinner meeting with Lawrence Burwell efficiently performing in the capacity of fine collector. A short story was given of the club's eleventh annual convention to be held in Santa Cruz this week-end. Going from here to the conclave are Mr. Korn, as delegate; Lewis Chaney, club vice president, and Harry McKinney. Marvin Francisco may also attend the meeting. The group will leave here tonight by motor for the northern convention city.

ETIWANDA

ETIWANDA Aug. 25—The Etiwanda night ball team again won in the Tuesday night game with the Upland Merchants the score being 4 to 3. The local team plays the Upland Lemon Growers tonight.

Mrs. Clyde Webb and children, Louis and Lillian, of Temple were guests of the latter's parents Wednesday evening while enroute from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Mervyn Fowlks of Redlands, the occasion being the ninth birthday of little Lillian Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott and daughter, Jean Margaret, and Miss Marian Frost, who are enjoying an outing at the Scott cabin in Bear Valley, accompanied by Miss Virginia Bardine, came down from the mountains Tuesday evening to attend the ball game.

Mrs. Lue B. Dooley is again at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Donnelly, after spending several weeks with her son, Dr. Frank Dooley, in Pomona during the absence of the latter's wife and children, Jean and Kay, who visited their former home in Illinois.

Wilberta Derry returned to her home in San Bernardino Saturday after several days spent with her cousin, Patty Hickcox.

J. C. Jones stopped over with his son, R. S. Jones, and family Tuesday and Wednesday nights on his way to and from Coachella Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are spending several weeks in Long Beach.

Arthur Myers started peach drying activities at his home here this week and expects to be at work on the crop steadly for the next two weeks.

Elizabeth and Sara Jean Donnelly went to Claremont Tuesday for a few days visit with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Brubaker.

Upland Ball Team of 20 Years ago Plays Famous L. A. Outfit

simple matter for the right fielder to throw to Volbrecht, doubling Andy off first. Dr. John thought that Busby, who was basking in the sun at third base, had tried to score after the catch and John decided to gallop to the hot corner. Imagine his embarrassment when he saw Mr. Busby's 170 pound frame anchored on third base. Volbrecht took no chances but pranced across the infield and tagged Mr. Craig out before John or Busby could do anything about the situation. Needless to say the Upland rooters were paralyzed for a minute, then a burst of applause greeted the fast work of the Teddy Bears.

A triple play is something rare, but more rare when it is made by the right fielder and the first baseman. Funny thing about triple plays, though, seeing one is like eating spinach—there's not much to it.

The first two Teddy Bears in the seventh were thrown out, but the third baby smacks one down to Jum Means. It takes a nasty hop, and the old-timer juggles the pill just long enough to miss getting the runner at first.

"And I'm wasted here," sneers Frisbie. "I'd have taken that guy before the bat was out of his hands."

"Sure," growls Arthur Neff, sitting alongside him on the bench, "and you'd have caught the bird stealing second in tomorrow's game. You're fast, you are."

"Well," says the rah rah, "I may be a trifle slower than light, but I'm certainly faster than that spav out there with one foot in the grave and the other on a banana peel. Don't they ever bury ball players when they die?"

"Hardly ever," returns Neff, but I've seen a lot of new-laid eggs in this pasture dig their graves with their tongues."

"Not this new-laid egg," declares Frisbie, this one'll hatch a few wins for you."

Just to make it pleasant for the local fans Means proceeds to mess up everything that comes his way. The ball's full of pikes and all red-hot as far as he's concerned, and his work with the stick was nothing to parade the troops for. But they retired the Bears that inning without a run.

In the last half of the seventh, with Mack Woolridge perched on first, the result of getting hit by a pitched ball, and two men out, Capt. Ferriter yells for Frisbie to bat for Jum Means.

"It's about time," growls Freddy, "I got a mind not to."

"Oh, go on," cuts in Neff, "help him out."

The kid stands up to the plate like a master craftsman and lets a couple of called balls go by that the average rookie would've dislocated an ankle or two swinging at. The third pitch is what the specifications call for—a fast rubber-cutter, belt high. Frisbie meets it on the seam for a screaming drive just inside the first base foul line, a wallop that's good for a double, even in the Snail and Tortoise league.

But our Freddy's neither a snail nor a tortoise. He's beyond second before a hand's laid on the ball, right on the heels of Mack Woolridge, who'd had a long start off first when the hit was made. Frisbie practically pushes the runner past third and continues the poke process to the pay-off.

Some 10 feet from the finish, with the throw-in on the way, Freddy hands Woolridge a rough shove that flattens him face down in the dust of the plate and scores himself just as the ball clumps into the catcher's paws. Woolridge scrambles to his feet in a froth and lets loose with a vicious swing, but Freddy's no stationary engineer. He steps aside, pulls back his right and snaps it into Mack's chin. Jolted loose from his gravity, Woolridge returns to the dust whence he sprang. Frisbie brushes himself off and walks over to where Bowden and Busby are standing.

Meek, Keough Big Hopes on Bear Squad

Two Chaffey students will be watched closely by followers of the University of California football team. Dave Meek, who has already placed his name high in grid annals, will be joined this year on the Bear varsity squad by "Zeke" Keough, who a couple of years ago raced the Chaffey junior college eleven to many victories.

Meek was in Upland visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Meek, just prior to his departure for school in the north. He has been tentatively placed on the first Bear eleven, with Keough among the bright reserves.
